1 passes to 4 at the high post. If x2 is denying the pass to 2 on the wing then 2 makes a back-cut.
If x2 covers the back-cut, 2 looks to post him up.
4 can pass directly to 2, to 1 on the wing, or to 5 at the high post.
4 sets a ball-screen for 1 then rolls to the basket.
2 slides to the corner.
As x4 tries to cover the roll, 4 seals him to receive the Hi/Lo pass from 5.
1 passes to 2, then cuts to the opposite corner.
4 dives to the low post looking for a pass from 2.
If 4 isn't open, 5 sets a ball-screen for 2.
4 clears to the opposite side of the lane.
5 rolls on the screen, and 3 cuts into the lane.
2 looks to pass to 5 or 3.
In this option against a 1-2-2, 4 sets a ball-screen for 1.
4 rolls to the basket.
If x5 steps in front of the roll, 4 looks to seal x5.
1 passes to 5 who looks for 4 sealing x5.
Here is the same play against a 1-3-1 zone defense.

As 4 rolls to the basket, 1 should read x3.

If x3 stays behind 4 on the cut, 1 passes to 2 who passes to 4.

If x3 tries to front 4, 1 passes to 5 who passes to 4.
In this option against a 2-1-2, 1 passes to 2 on the wing then cuts through to the opposite corner. 4 moves to the low post. 5 moves to the high post. 2 looks to pass to 4 or 5. If neither is open, 2 looks to pass to 3 cutting to the top or to 1 on the skip.
In this play against a 1-3-1 zone defense, 1 passes to 4 at the high post, then moves to the wing. Once 4 has the ball, 5 and 2 dive to the basket. x3 has to make a decision on who to guard. 4 passes to the open man after reading x3.
If 5 and 2 aren't open, 3 moves back toward the wing.
4 passes to 3.
If x4 stays back, 3 shoots the shot.
If x4 closes out on the shot, 3 looks to pass to 5.
